

Constructive Communication Skills

This two-hour course helps participants discover the skills essential for successful verbal and non-verbal communication and learn how to deliver messages clearly and effectively. Participants will learn how to read and interpret non-verbal cues as well as practice PEACE-keeping conflict resolution steps as a method of enhancing their communication skills in the workplace.